AN ASTON RALLY IN LONDON

The 8 C.M.A.'s Great Night on his Return from the Land's End Tour.

Edward Aston, R.M., writes: "I am pleased to report that the first ever Aston Rally in London was a great success. The event took place on Saturday night, as scheduled, at the Victoria Palace Hotel. A large crowd turned out to support the rally, which was attended by many celebrities and prominent figures. The evening consisted of speeches, entertainment, and acharmingly presented film of the Land's End Tour. The atmosphere was electric, and the energy was palpable throughout the evening. It was truly a memorable event for all those in attendance. Congratulations, Edward Aston, for putting on such a fantastic rally!"

Edward Aston's Return from the Land's End Tour

Edward Aston, R.M., the world-renowned rally organizer, has returned from his latest Land's End Tour. The journey was filled with excitement and adventure, as Aston navigated through some of the most challenging terrains known to man. The rally was a testament to Aston's skill and determination, as he successfully completed the tour. The reception upon his return was enthusiastic, with hundreds of fans and supporters gathered to celebrate. Aston is now looking forward to planning his next grand event, with a promise of even greater concerts and attractions. Stay tuned for more updates on Edward Aston's future rallies. Congratulations, Edward Aston, on a job well done!"

Words on Weights: R.W.A. Activities

On the committee, Mr. Edward Aston, the world's leading weightlifter and Britain's Strongest Man, has been instrumental in shaping the future of weightlifting. With his vast experience and unwavering dedication, Aston has worked tirelessly to promote the sport and inspire the next generation of athletes. His contributions have been acknowledged by the R.W.A., a leading weightlifting organization. Aston's influence is evident in the growth of weightlifting programs across the country, as more and more people are discovering the exhilarating world of weightlifting. Aston's passion for the sport is contagious, and his commitment to excellence sets a high standard for all those involved. Congratulations, Mr. Edward Aston, on your continued success and dedication to the sport of weightlifting. Keep shining, and inspiring the next generation of champions!"

Mr. Edward Aston, World's (Middle-weight) Champion Lifter and Britain's Strongest Man

Aston's Order of Merit

Edward Aston, the world-renowned weightlifter and Britain's Strongest Man, has been awarded the Order of Merit. This prestigious honor is given to individuals who have made significant contributions to their respective fields. Aston, with his exceptional skills and dedication, has indeed earned this honor. The Order of Merit is a testament to Aston's hard work, determination, and passion for the sport. Congratulations, Mr. Edward Aston, on this well-deserved recognition. Keep inspiring and achieving great heights!"