Darrell K. Royal Collection: 25 Albums, 8 Individual Items, and 1 Plaque, no date, 1926-2011

Abstract

Darrell K. Royal is the most significant football coach in the history of the University of Texas at Austin. During his twenty years on the Forty Acres, he never had a losing season. He played football at Hollis (Oklahoma) High School and went on to star for the University of Oklahoma. He began coaching the Longhorns in 1957. He led Texas to three National Championships in 1963, 1969 and 1970. President Lyndon B. Johnson called him personally after the 1963 Cotton Bowl win over Navy. After retiring from coaching in 1976, Royal stayed on as the UT Austin Athletic Director (a post he had held since 1962) until 1980. Along with football, Royal loved music, making Austin a perfect fit, and he was good friends with Merle Haggard, George Jones and Willie Nelson, among others. Celebrated for both his wisdom and his wit, people referred to Royal as “Coach” on the UT Austin campus and all over the state. Coach Royal passed away on November 6, 2012 and is a football and Texas legend second to none.

Biographical Note

Born July 6, 1924, Darrell K. Royal is the most famous football coach in the history of the University of Texas at Austin, and one of the most revered in college football. The UT Austin football stadium, first christened as Memorial Stadium in 1924 to honor the 198,520 Texans who fought and the 5,280 who died during World War I, was retitled Darrell K. Royal Texas Memorial Stadium in 1996 in his honor. Renowned for his wit, Royal coined this gem of an answer for how to motivate a team after a losing season: “Don’t know, never had one.” He believed in staying with the plays and the players that got football teams to a big game or a bowl game, saying, “You dance with who brung ya.” He further explained, “I’ve always felt three things can happen to you whenever you throw the football, and two of ‘em are bad (an incomplete pass or an interception).” Apt for the expectations at Texas he stated, “The best thing a coach can hope for is to please the majority. And the only way to please the majority is to win.”

Royal completed his studies at Hollis (Oklahoma) High School in 1942. During this time he met Edith Marie Thomason, and they married July 26, 1944. Together they had a daughter, Marian K. (born June 19, 1945) and two sons, Sammy Mack (born February 2, 1947) and David Wade (born June 16, 1952). Tragically, both Marian and David died in car accidents. Darrell went on to serve with the Army Air Corps and played football for the 3rd Air Force Gremlins, leading to his recruitment to play college football at the University of Oklahoma. Once in Norman, he performed at both the quarterback and defensive back positions for OU and their eminent coach, Bud Wilkinson, from 1946 through 1950. Royal excelled as a defensive back and still holds the Sooner football records for interceptions in a game (three against Oklahoma A&M in 1947) and in a career (eighteen in four seasons). Though he shared the quarterback responsibilities with others at times, Royal started every game in 1949, winning all eleven, while leading Oklahoma to the 1950 National Championship.

Darrell K. Royal’s first head coaching experience came north of the border in 1953 with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. Mississippi State offered Royal his first college head coaching job in 1954. He remained with the Bulldogs in Starkville until 1956, when he trekked northwest to Seattle to coach the Washington Huskies. The next year, Royal brought his football acumen to the University of Texas at Austin. The Longhorns had been 1-9 in 1956, the worst showing ever for Texas. Royal swiftly made the Longhorns winners, compiling a 6-4-1 record and leading them to the 1957 Sugar Bowl. During his twenty season career as Head Coach of Texas, the Longhorns never posted a losing record. His final tally for the twenty years was 167 wins, 47 losses and 5 ties, for a winning percentage of 76.3. He guided the Longhorns to National Championships in 1963, 1969 and 1970.

The 1963 team had to come from behind late in their final regular season game to defeat Texas A&M and continue their perfect term. Even though they were awarded the Associated Press and United Press International National Championships afterward, they still had a game to play. Royal made certain the players understood that they could only earn the National Championship in his eyes if they won. No. 1 Texas had a date with once beaten No. 2 Navy and the Heisman Trophy winner, Roger Staubach, in the Cotton Bowl. Texas won 28-6. President Lyndon B. Johnson called Royal after the game to congratulate him and said “we’re all burstin’ our buttons (with pride).” Furthermore, during Royal’s watch, Texas won 11 Southwestern Conference Championships and appeared in 16 bowl games. Royal became the UT Athletic Director in 1962 and served in both positions until 1976, when he retired from coaching. Royal continued to serve as AD at Texas until 1980 when DeLoss Dodds took over the position. Royal’s induction into the College Football Hall of Fame occurred in 1983.

Darrell K. Royal loved music and knew legends like Merle Haggard, George Jones, Willie Nelson and countless more. The production crew on the famous Public Broadcasting Service music show, Austin City Limits, was likely able to secure appearances by several acts due to their close relationships with Royal. Royal perished of Alzheimer’s disease on November 6, 2012 at the age of 88.

Cover: quote from Vince Lombardi (1913-1970), “After the cheers have died and the stadium is empty, after the headlines have been written, and after you are back in the quiet of your own room and the Super Bowl ring has been placed on the dresser and all the pomp and fanfare have faded, the enduring things that are left are: the dedication to excellence; the dedication to victory; and the dedication to doing with our lives the very best we can to make the world a better place in which to live.”
