

Max Sick's Unknown.

time with clothes 12st. 10lb. They played with me at that weight. Again, at one of our places of refreshment after club matters, the barman, a mighty man of 8st., evidently heard us talking about weight-lifting, for he whispered confidentially to Fred Gruhn: "I could lift a 50'er." Gruhn was a champion spoiler, and we made a fuss of this champion (1). But

W. Rowley is seated on the extreme left; next to him is Mr. Morgan.

YOUNG ROWLEY.

Dear Mr. Editor.—I was very surprised and pleased to have my name mentioned once again in the magazine by Mr. Harold M. Nunn in his article in the "World of Weights" (Young Rowley). I thought I was very much a back number. We did have some times, and I could mention many more names connected with the Argyle Street Club.