

sends no deposit. I refuse to consider any challenge as a serious one without a deposit. Broom does not even say which lifts he wants. I agree that the matter be submitted to the B.W.L.A., and will abide by their decision. I shall write no more letters, because I do not regard Broom's challenge as a satisfactory one, as he makes no attempt to get to business.

A match is shortly taking place for the title of Britain's Strongest Junior, between L. Warrington (Stratford) and J. Greenwood (Halifax), for £ to a-side, deposited with "H. & S." and Mr. Croft's purse. The contest will take place at the South London Physical Club, probably on November 13th or 21st. H-2-12
[We hold Warrington's deposit of £10.—Ed.]

Walter Winkle, of Kettering, has written to G. Fallon (Colnet), P. Lee (Grantham), and W. Carroll (Blackburn), the three acceptors of his challenge, and is doing his best to fix up with them, either individually or collectively. "I have sufficient confidence in my powers of pure strength lifts," he says, "to prove that I am Britain's strongest bantam-weight, so I say, 'Let 'em all come.' I am training on the Aston system. H+S 11-2-1912
