

Strength MAGAZINE

PUBLISHED BY THE MILO PUBLISHING CO.
2741 N. PALETHORP STREET
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

April 9th, 1926.

Mr. Ottley Coulter,
c/o Police Department,
Uniontown, Penna.

Dear Friend Ottley:

I thought you were dead. I hope you are not offended because I did not go into that scheme with you or come up, but the truth is that Bessie has passed through another operation since that time and Phyllis was sick for six weeks, and is just getting around, which naturally was another drain upon my financial resources.

I am sending you a book that I received from Klein, which he is selling for $1.00. I know you will like it.

Now Ott. I want to ask you for a favor. Of course you will say that that is the only time I write, when I want a favor, but the truth is I never write to any one as I am so busy. Anyhow, I have just started on a new book which is to be bigger and better than Super-Strength, and we want all entirely new photographs. I have a lot more than needed, but I was wondering if you had any pictures that was more interesting than mine, and no doubt had some pictures of famous old timers that I didn't have. Like Joe Cohen. Do you think you would care to look through your files and dig some up and send them to me. I guarantee I will take care of them and send them back in good condition.

By the way, if you have a good picture of yourself don't forget to