

Aston, Birmingham.--The annual gymnastic display was given by the members of the Dyson Hall, Aston, last week, when the ladies did some nice marching, free movements, spring-board jumping, Indian club exercises, pyramids, etc., and the men section did splendidly on the horizontal and parallel bars, rings. There was also blindfold boxing by G. W. Porter and F. Deacon, hand-balancing and tumbling tricks by the Brothers Hollis, wrestling by J. Farrell and J. Caubrey, and running races by combined ladies and gentlemen.
