Uniontown, Penna.

Dear Friend Ottley:

Thank you ever so much for your last letter with all the splendid information. I appreciate it very much.

I am very busy just now, Ottley, proof reading my book, so you must excuse the brevity of this letter. As soon as it is finished, I am going to write you a long letter, as I have a lot to tell you.

As soon as I get ^{the first} copy of this book off press, I am going to send you it, for old times sake.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely your friend,

George
